Istanbul Haber

Welcome to day 3!

Yesterday we met with our friends at SkySQL.

Dinner last night was notable for the flaming stew pots and main course. After dinner several of us walked to the Blue Mosque and Hagia Sophia. They both looked impressive lit up at night.

Weather

Chance of Rain. Partly Cloudy. High: 16 °C . Wind SW 25 km/h . 30% chance of precipitation (water equivalent of 1.30 mm).

Today's Schedule

09:00-10:00	Email & Hacking time (Public)
10:00-11:45	Hacking in Groups / Unconference (Public)
11:45-12:30	Web & Sysadmin (Knowledgebase and etc...) (Public) (All MPs need to be present)
12:30-13:30	Lunch

Interesting News

Who would have thought stew could be made better by lighting it on fire and cooking it in a pot that needs to be broken open before serving?

13:30-15:15	Hacking in Groups / Unconference (Public)
15:15-15:45	Break.
15:45-17:15	Monty Program Internal Review (Not Public) (All MPs need to be present)
17:15-17:30	Thank You from Monty (Public) (All MPs need to be present)
19:00-???	Dinner on your own.

Music Requests

Our location for the farewell dinner has a good enough sound system and a DJ booth and we are allowed to dance. We need your help for the music selection of the night!
