Istanbul Haber

Thank you to everyone for all of the good memories from Istanbul!

There was no Istanbul Haber released on the day of the excursion, so we'll have to make do with this edition from after the excursion.

Most of us are traveling home now (or are already back).

Weather

The weather on the excursion day was beautiful. The first and only full day of sunshine we had during the trip.

Interesting News

I doubt many will forget the sight of Monty dancing with the belly dancer on a table during the farewell dinner. See Henrik's blog for a (grainy) video: <http://goo.gl/wb2e>

Excursion Route

Sanja provided us with a map of the route we took on our Istanbul excursion, courtesy of his GPS:
